

CONTENTS

From the Editor	5
I. PAPERS AND STUDIES
Helena Hurme, Intergenerational interactions in the family	7
Anna Kotlarska-Michalska, Factors influencing the range of protective care function in working class families in big cities	21
Maria Ziemska, Some problems of developing new parental roles after divorce	29
Irena Borzym, Family type and schoolchildren's intellectual abilities in the context of the ideas of Bernstein and Bronfenbrenner	41
Mirosława Matuszewska, Perception of parental attitudes and its impact on children's personality development	51
Barbara Harwas-Napierała, Shyness of schoolchildren and some of its family conditioning	61
II. PROBLEMS OF METHODOLOGY OF RESEARCH
Zbigniew Tyszka, The method of multiaspectual integral analysis of family life	75
III. REVIEW OF ISSUES
Maria Tyszkowa, Family as an environment of the development of a child. Some research findings of developmental psychology in Poland	85
IV. REPORTS FROM RESEARCH
Krystyna Bryll-Barnaś, The structure of peasant's family in Wielkopolska	99
Kazimierz Kotlarski, Socio-economic status of the families of mathematically gifted and non-gifted pupils	105
Barbara Szychowiak, Family environment of physically disabled children and adolescents	113
Hanna Bogacka, Attitudes of parents and the social functioning of blind children	119
IV. THE CHRONICLE
Zbigniew Tyszka, Polish coordinated research on the family	131
Main research problems and recent scientific publications of the institutes of the Faculty of Social Sciences at Adam Mickiewicz University:	134