

ABSTRACT. Tradycja jako wyznacznik współczesności. Przypomnienie dawnych profesorów Wydziału Nauk Społecznych UAM [Tradition as a determinant of present times. Scientific Biographies of the Professors Affiliated to Social Sciences Faculty at Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań] edited by Krystyna Zamiara – „Człowiek i Społeczeństwo”, vol. XXV, Poznań 2005, pp. 152. Adam Mickiewicz University Press. ISBN 83-232-1633-9. ISSN 0239-3271.

This XXV volume of the journal is a complimentary section connected with volume XXIV dedicated to the celebration of the 30th anniversary of functioning of Social Sciences Faculty. This Faculty was established in 1975, as the division of the previously existing Philosophical-Historical Faculty. The development of the Faculty and its dynamic growth was a result of common work of significant scientific personalities, who have made a very strong impact on the humanistic field in this country. Empirical research, theoretical achievements and teaching performed by professors have created strong relationships between them and their students. Many of the values forwarded by the Professors are nowadays treated as a basis in the humanistic approach to the research and academic work. In the volume biographies of 19 professors, whose significant impact on the Social Sciences Faculty is unforgettable are presented.
